TO ESTABLISH A HIGH SCHOOL.

Districts of Alexander, Cottonwood, Harris and Blanton Consolidated.

A meeting of the county school board was held Saturday afternoon in the office of County Superintendent T. W. Parker for the purpose of considering a petition signed by the trustees of the Alexander, Cottonwood, Harris and Blanton school districts, asking that said districts be consolidated for the purpose of establishing a central high school to take care of the graduates of the schools after finishing the course of work in the schools already established in these districts.

After a thorough consideration of the petition with reference to the total number of pupils in said districts and the probable number of high school pupils, the board voted unanimously to consolidate the districts and establish the school. They agreed to go out next Saturday and select a location for the new high school.

BRYAN BAPTIST ACADEMYFast Game on the Academy Grounds
Saturday Afternoon.

The Steep Hollow basketball team outplayed and badly defeated the Bryan Baptist Academy boys Saturday afternoon on the Baptist Academy court by a score of 23 to 19. The game was very good despite the one-sided score and the academy boys played a much better game than the score would indicate.

The Steep Hollow boys had the services of Prof. Ford, principal and coach of the school, on account of the absence of one his players from the lineup.

Following is the lineup of the two teams:

B. B. A.—	Steep Hollow—

GRIMES COUNTY PEOPLE ARE PLEASED WITH THEIR ROADS

Navasota, Tex., March 1, 1915.
Editor Bryan Eagle.

Numerous parties from Brazos County have asked me what the people of this county think of their gravel roads, and as you are about to vote on a bond issue for the purpose of building good roads, I will give you the facts as I have noted them since coming to this city.

First. The people in the north end of the county have been so well impressed with the roads in this precinct during the extreme wet weather this winter that they are now getting up a petition for an election in that part of the county.

Second. There has not been a day since I came here but that automobiles and heavy traffic were to be seen on the gravel roads here, yet roads not graveled could not be used with the lightest traffic.

A taxpayer whose taxes was increased $125 as a result of the bond issue remarked to me only a few days ago that he gets more direct result from that part of his taxes than for any other that he pays.

Yours very truly,
L. M. HEWIT.

WAGES IN NEW YORK STATE.

For over a year the New York State Factory Investigating Commission has been investigating wages in four low-paid industries—confectionery, shirts, paper boxes and retail stores. The results of this study have just been published in the report of the commission and on the data collected recommendations regarding minimum wage legislation will be submitted to the Legislature. Discussing the results of the investigation, Dr. Howard B. Woolston, its director, says in the Survey:

"The statistical tables show wide variations in the wage scale, according to the kind of work and type of workers. In a brief summary only general tendencies and striking exceptions can be noted. Behind the averages for the trade are concealed generous payments of well organized firms and the starvation wages of their less scrupulous rivals.

"An average for all employees may also include the salaries of two $10,000 buyers and of thirty $4 messenger girls. But in the following epitome the medium wage, that below which half the employees in each industry were registered, is given to indicate the general level for a group.

"The most and the least skillful employees are on time wages. Of over 90,000 persons for whom weekly rates were entered more than three-fifths of the male workers receive less than $15 when working full time, and more than three-fourths of the women and girls less than $10 a week. In the stores half the males get less than $14; half the female help less than $7.50. In shirt and box factories half the males receive less than $12, and half the females less than $6.50 a week, while in the confectionery trade wages fall below $11 for half the males and below $6 for half the females. More than 7,000 female employees in all lines (one-sixth of the total number of women and girls) are quoted at rates under $5 per week."

NOW IS THE TIME TO SWAT THE FLY

Uncle Sam is waging a relentless war on the deadly house fly and in a late bulletin prepared by the Department of Agriculture, valuable information is given on the best means of combating this deadly pest. The most effective way of exterminating the fly, according to the bulletin, is to eradicate his breeding places. The breeding season of the fly begins early in March and continues throughout the spring and summer months. All dirt should be removed from the premises, stables cleaned and decaying vegetable wastes destroyed.

The fly has rightly been called the undertaker's traveling salesman, and in addition to his regular line of "typhoid bugs," he carries a side line of tuberculosis, Asiatic cholera and other disease germs. Now is the time to "swat the fly."

Diplomacy.

A well-known English politician was much annoyed by reporters. One day he was enjoying a chat at a London hotel when a strange young man came up who seemed to have something of importance to communicate, and led him across the room. Arrived in a corner, the stranger whispered: "I am on the staff of an evening paper, and I should like you to tell me what you think of the government's foreign policy."

Mr. Dash looked a little puzzled; then he said, "Follow me."

Leading the way, he walked through the reading room, down some steps into the drawing room, through a long passage into the dining room, and drawing his visitor into the corner behind the hat rack, he whispered, "I really don't know anything about it." —Weekly Telegraph.

"Did you have any trouble with your French when you were abroad?" "No, I didn't; but the Parisians did." —Washington Herald.
